

Washington, DC – Congressman John Adler today released the following statement on the 45th Anniversary of Medicare.

“Forty-five years ago, Congress made a commitment to the seniors and families that helped build this great country. Every individual who works hard and plays by the rules deserves to have a secure retirement,” Congressman John Adler said. “I will continue to work to make sure these programs are strong and solvent for future generations.”